

MULTIPLE ADULT FAMILY HOME ADMINISTRATOR TRAINING

48– Hour Residential Care Administrator Training

What is residential care administrator training?

Residential care administrator training is a minimum of forty-eight hours of training on topics related to the management of adult family homes.

Who Needs This Training?

The 48-Hour Administrator Training is for those that will be operating more than one Adult Family Home. The provider or an entity representative as defined under Chapter 388-76-570 of the WAC must successfully complete this training before opening a second Adult Family Home. This course meets the requirements defined in WAC 388-112-0265 through 388-112-0285.

Finding and Locating an Instructor:

Aging and Disability Services Administration has approved a number of instructors to teach this course. Many of the instructors will travel outside of their local area to train. They need to have a certain number of students in order to provide the class. Contact the instructor closest to you to find out your options. Instructors, their location, and phone numbers can be found on the next page.

Who would benefit from this training:

Any person starting a new Adult Family Home business would find the information useful and beneficial to their business.
